

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. 7-25-1934

The following list of Soldiers, Sailors, and Marines, with rank and postoffice address, will be found complete and correct as reported to this office by the County Clerks of the several counties of the State. In most instances the County Clerks reported promptly, but in a few cases we were required to make repeated calls, and now have the pleasure of presenting the first Roster wherein all the counties of the state are represented. In preparing the Roster, we have used every means possible to have it complete, and hope it will aid the veterans of the late war in locating their old Comrades. Any omissions that may be discovered should be charged to the Assessors, whose duty it was to make the enumeration. Several pages of valuable matter, which we trust will be of interest to the public, has also been added to the Roster.

COURT OF CLAIMS.

Jurisdiction.—This court was established by act of Congress, February 24, 1855 [10 Stat. L., 612]. It has general jurisdiction of all "claims founded upon the Constitution of the United States or any law of Congress, except for pensions, or upon any regulation of an Executive Department, or upon any contract, expressed or implied, with the Government of the United States, or for damages, liquidated or unliquidated, in cases not sounding in tort, in respect of which claims the party would be entitled to redress against the United States, either in a court of law, equity, or admiralty, if the United States were suable, except claims growing out of the late civil war, and commonly known as war claims," and certain rejected claims.

It has jurisdiction also of claims of like character which may be referred to it by any Executive Department, involving disputed facts or controverted questions of law, where the amount in controversy exceeds $3,000, or where the decision will affect a class of cases or furnish a precedent for the future action of any Executive Department in the adjustment of a class of cases, or where any authority, right, privilege, or exemption is claimed or denied under the Constitution. In all the above-mentioned cases the court, when it finds for the claimant, may enter judgment against the United States, payable out of the public Treasury. An appeal, only upon questions of law, lies to the Supreme Court on the part of the defendants in all cases, and on the part of the claimants when the amount in controversy exceeds $3,000. The findings of fact by the Court of Claims are final and not subject to review by the Supreme Court.

By the act of March 3, 1883, chapter 116 [22 Stat. L., 485, and 1 Supplement to R. S., 2d ed., p. 403], called the "Bowman act," the head of an Executive Department may refer to the court any "claim or matter" pending in his Department involving controverted questions of fact or law. The court is required to find the facts and its conclusions of law and to report the same to the Department for its guidance and action. The same act authorizes either House of Congress, or any of its committees, to refer to the court any "claim or matter" involving the investigation and determination of facts, the court to find the facts and report the same to Congress for such action thereon as may there be determined. This act is extended by act of March 2, 1887, chapter 359 [24 Stat. L., 505, and 1 Supplement to R. S., 2d ed., p. 559].

There is a statute of limitations which prevents parties from bringing actions on their own motion beyond six years after the cause of action accrued, but the Departments may refer claims at any time, if they were pending therein the six years. The only limitation under the "Bowman act" is that the court shall have no jurisdiction of any claim barred before the passage of the act by any then existing provision of law.

By act of January 20, 1885, [23 Stat. L., 283, and 1 Supplement to R. S., 2d ed., p. 471], Congress gave to the court jurisdiction over "claims to indemnity upon the French Government arising out of illegal captures, detentions, seizures, condemnations, and confiscations prior to the ratification of the convention between the United States and the French Republic, concluded on the 30th day of September, 1800." The time of filing claims is limited to two years from the passage of the act, and all claims not presented within that time are forever barred. The court finds the facts and the law, and reports the same in each case to Congress.

By act of March 3, 1891, chapter 538 [26 Stat. L., 851, and Supplement to R. S., 2d ed., p. 913], the court is vested with jurisdiction of certain Indian depredation claims.

*Jackson called himself a South Carolinian, and his biographer, Kendall, recorded his birth-place in Lancaster county, S. C., but Parton has published documentary evidence to show that Jackson was born in Union county, N. C., less than a quarter mile from the South Carolina line.

†The democratic party of today claims lineal descent from the republican party, and President Jefferson as its founder.

‡Political parties were disorganized at the time of the election of John Quincy Adams. He claimed to be republican, but his doctrines were decidedly federalistic. The opposition to his administration took the name of democrats, and elected Jackson president.

THE PRESIDENTIAL SUCCESSION.

The presidential succession is fixed by chapter 4 of the acts of the Forty-ninth Congress, first session. In case of the removal, death, resignation, or inability of both the President and Vice-President, then the Secretary of State shall act as President until the disability of the President or Vice-President is removed or a president elected. If there be no Secretary of State, then the Secretary of the Treasury will act; and the remainder of the order of succession is: The Secretary of War, Attorney-General, Postmaster-General, Secretary of the Navy, and Secretary of the Interior. The acting President must, upon taking office, convene congress, if not at the time in session, in extraordinary session, giving twenty days' notice. This act applies only to such cabinet officers as shall have been appointed by the advice and consent of the Senate, and are eligible under the Constitution to the Presidency.

NOTES TO PAGES 108, 109, 110, 111, 112, 113.

NOTE—Prior to 1804 each elector voted for two candidates for President—the one receiving the highest number of votes being declared President, and the one receiving the next highest being declared Vice-President.

*A compilation of the popular vote prior to 1824 is impossible, as the records are meager and incomplete. For a quarter of a century after the government was established the electors in most of the states were appointed by the state legislatures, and the popular choice was expressed but indirectly in the election of the members of the legislatures.

†Three states cast no vote, viz: New York, which had not yet enacted an electoral law, and North Carolina and Rhode Island, neither of which had adopted the Constitution.

‡There being a tie, the choice devolved upon the House of Representatives, and on the thirty-sixth ballot Jefferson was elected.

§The democratic party of today was originally the "republican;" afterward known by both names; but since 1832 the party has adhered to the name "democratic."

The electoral college failing to elect, the choice devolved upon the House of Representatives, Adams being elected on first ballot.

††No candidate having received a majority of the votes of the electoral college, the Senate elected Johnson Vice-President.

‡‡The eleven states which had seceded did not vote, viz: Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, and Virginia.

§§Three states still disfranchised did not vote, viz: Mississippi, Texas, and Virginia.

Three electoral votes of Georgia cast for Greeley, and the six votes of Arkansas and the eight votes of Louisiana, cast for Grant, were rejected. Greeley having died, the Democratic electors scattered their votes.

†††The electoral votes of Florida, Louisiana, Oregon, and South Carolina, being in dispute, were referred by Congress to an electoral commission composed of seven Democrats and eight Republicans, which by a strict party vote awarded 185 electoral votes to Hayes and 184 to Tilden.

SENATORS.

JOHN MELLEN THURSTON, of Omaha, was born in Vermont in 1847, of Revolutionary ancestry. His father died in volunteer service as private in the First Wisconsin Cavalry in 1863. His son was left in humble circumstances, which compelled him to work his own way through college. He was educated at Wayland University, Beaver Dam, Wisconsin. Soon after completing his work there he moved to Omaha, having previously been admitted to the bar. His great energy and ability at once made themselves apparent, and his reputation as a lawyer and orator steadily increased until it extended far beyond the boundaries of his adopted state. In the earlier years of his residence in Omaha, Mr. Thurston was a member of the city council and afterwards was city attorney for several years. He was also a member of the legislature in 1875, holding the position of chairman of the judiciary committee and acting speaker. In 1884 he headed the Nebraska delegation to the Republican National Convention, where he seconded the nomination of General Logan for Vice-President, and otherwise took a prominent part in the proceedings. He was temporary chairman of the Republican National Convention of 1888, and on that occasion delivered an address which established his fame as an orator on a national basis. Ever since that time he has been one of the most popular campaign orators in the United States. Having been for many years, by virtue of his ability as an organizer and an orator, one of the recognized leaders of the republican party in Nebraska, it is but natural that Mr. Thurston's name has frequently been mentioned in connection with the United States Senatorship. In 1887 he was a strong candidate for that honorable position, and in 1893 received the republican caucus nomination. During that long and exciting contest before the legislature he received the party vote, lacking but five of an election. He was defeated by a combination of populists and democrats. In 1889 he was urged by almost the entire West for a cabinet position, and was prominently mentioned for nomination for vice-president on the ticket with Blaine in 1892. At the opening of the campaign in 1894, when W. J. Bryan opened his aggressive campaign for the United States Senate, the standard of the republican party of Nebraska was by common consent placed in the hands of Mr. Thurston. He held a series of debates with the democratic leader, and the result is known to all men. At the end of the campaign it was found that Mr. Bryan's attempt to gain the senatorial election by the fusion of the populists and democrats had failed. The republicans of the state demanded Mr. Thurston's election so unanimously that no other candidate appeared, and long before the republican caucus was held his election was a certainty. He received the unanimous vote of the party in the caucus and in the legislature. Mr. Thurston has a wife and three children, and his home is a model of comfort and domestic felicity.

WILLIAM VINCENT ALLEN, of Madison, was born in Midway, Madison county, Ohio, January 28, 1847; removed with his stepfather's family to Iowa in 1857. He was educated in the common schools of Iowa and attended the Upper Iowa University at Fayette for a time, but did not graduate; was a private soldier in Company G, Thirty-second Iowa Volunteer Infantry, during the war of the rebellion, the last five months of his services being on the staff of General J. I. Gilbert; read law with Hon. L. L. Ainsworth, at West Union, Iowa, and was admitted to the bar May 31, 1869, and practiced law from then until elected judge of the district court of the Ninth Judicial District of Nebraska, in the fall of 1891. He moved from Iowa to Nebraska in 1884; was married May 2, 1870; was elected United States Senator to succeed Algernon Sidney Paddock, February 7, 1893, for the full term of six years, commencing March 4, 1893. His term of service will expire March 3, 1899.

JESSE B. STRODE, of Lincoln, Nebraska, Congressman from the First District, was born in Farmers Township, Fulton county, Illinois, February 18, 1845. He attended public school in winter and worked on his father's farm in summer until he was about 19 years of age, when he enlisted as a private soldier in the 50th Illinois Infantry. He was with his regiment during the Atlanta campaign, Sherman's march to the sea, through the Carolinas and Virginia, and at the grand review at Washington. He was commissioned as lieutenant, and was mustered out in July, 1865. Immediately thereafter he entered Abingdon College, at Abingdon, Illinois, and remained a student there for about three years, when he was elected principal of the graded schools of the city of Abingdon, which position he occupied for about eight years. He was twice elected mayor and six times alderman of the city of Abingdon. He studied law during vacations, while teaching. May 1, 1879 he moved from Abingdon, Illinois, to Plattsmouth, Nebraska, and was admitted to the bar there in November of the same year. He was elected district attorney in 1882, and served two terms. During the time he was district attorney he established a reputation as a criminal lawyer. He prosecuted notorious criminals, Quinn Bohanan and Lee Schellenberger, and just before entering upon his duties as district attorney assisted in the prosecution of John Polin, all three of whom were convicted of murder in the first degree. He removed to Lincoln in 1887, and practiced law there until he was elected judge of the District Court in 1892. Since moving to Lincoln he has appeared for the defendants in several of the most noted criminal trials of this state, among them the Sheedy case and the Irvine case, both charged with murder in the first degree, tried at Lincoln, and both acquitted; he also appeared for the defendant in the Yocum case tried at Hastings, the defendant being charged with murder in the first degree, convicted of manslaughter, sentenced to one year in the penitentiary and pardoned before the defendant entered the penitentiary. He occupied the position of district judge for two years, when he was nominated for Congress upon the republican ticket and elected, and resigned his judgeship. He was nominated on the twelve hundred and forty-sixth ballot at the Republican Convention at Nebraska City, August 14, 15 and 16, 1894, and was elected, receiving 18,185 votes against 12,728 votes for Austin H. Weir, who was nominated by both democrats and populists, and 1,078 votes for R. A. Hawley, nominee of the prohibition party. APPENDIX.

ROSTER FOR 1895

OF THE

GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC

Department of Nebraska

HEADQUARTERS, SUPERIOR.

DEPARTMENT BY-LAWS.

Adopted at Beatrice, January, 1885.

ARTICLE I.

MEETING.

The stated meetings of the Encampment shall be held on the third Wednesday in February of each year, at such place as shall have been selected by the previous Encampment.

ARTICLE II.

PER CAPITA TAX.

Each annual Encampment shall by vote fix the per capita tax for the year. No per capita tax shall be assessed upon new Posts for the quarter during which they are organized.

ARTICLE III.

NUMBERING POSTS.

All Posts hereafter organized shall be numbered consecutively, and according to the date of their charters. In case a Post disbands, or forfeits its charter, the number of such Post shall not be again used by any other Post. The date of each Post charter shall appear on the printed Roster of each year.

ARTICLE IV.

ARREARAGES AND COMMUNICATIONS

Any Post in arrears for semi-annual reports or dues six months shall be "suspended," and if the Post be one year in arrears, it shall forfeit its charter, and such Post be "dropped" from the rolls of the Department, and reinstated only by a majority vote of the Department Encampment, or of the Council of Administration, and upon forwarding reports and payments of all dues at the time of being dropped. All communications from Department Headquarters as to reports are official, and shall be read to the Post, as also reports and dues.

ARTICLE V.

COMMITTEE ON CREDENTIALS.

The Department Commander shall, at the last meeting of the Council of Administration previous to the meeting of each annual Encampment, appoint a committee on credentials, to consist of three members of such Council of Administration, of which the Assistant Adjutant-General shall be chairman.

ARTICLE VI.

QUORUM AND VACANCIES.

That a quorum of the Council of Administration shall consist of a majority of its members, including both appointed and elected; also that no proxies shall be used in the transaction of any business. All vacancies in elective offices may be filled by the Council of Administration.

ARTICLE VII.

COUNTERSIGNS.

A countersign shall be issued by the Department Commander immediately after his installation, and one on the 1st day of July, to be sent to each Post Commander when his reports for the second quarter are received by the Assistant Adjutant-General.

ARTICLE VIII.

MEMORIAL PAGE.

That every Commander of this Department who dies shall have his name and date and cause of death, with the company and regiment he served in, date of muster into G. A. R., and offices held in same, placed upon a memorial page, to be printed with the proceedings in the year in which he died.

ARTICLE IX.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

SECTION 1. The Department Commander shall, immediately after entering upon his office, appoint an Assistant Adjutant-General, an Assistant Quartermaster-General, an Inspector, a Judge Advocate, and a Chief Mustering officer, and may remove these officers at his pleasure. He may appoint as many Assistant Inspectors, on the nomination of the Inspector of the Department, and as many Aides-de-Camp as he may deem necessary. He shall preside at all meetings of the Department Encampment and Council of Administration; shall forward the reports and dues to National Headquarters, and see that all orders received from thence are properly published and obeyed; shall issue suitable charters of all Posts organized in his department and perform such other duties as are incumbent upon officers of like position. Shall act as Commander of the Reunion camp.

SEC. 2. The Vice Commander shall assist the Commander, by counsel or otherwise, and in his absence or disability they shall fill his office according to seniority.

SEC. 3. The Assistant Adjutant-General shall keep correct records of the proceedings of the Department Encampment and the Council of Administration; he shall conduct the correspondence and issue all orders under the direction of the Commander; draw all requisitions upon the Assistant Quartermaster-General; make out all returns to National Headquarters and transmit the same, through the Department Commander, to the Adjutant-General; countersign all charters issued by the Department Commander; keep an Order Book, a Letter Book, an Endorsement and Memorandum Book, and files of all orders, reports, and correspondence received and remaining in his office, and perform such other duties and keep such other records in connection with his office as may be required of him by the Commander or the Department Encampment. He shall receive as compensation for his services such sum as the Department Encampment may from time to time determine.

SEC. 4. The Assistant Quartermaster-General shall hold the funds, securities, vouchers, and property of the Department, and fill all requisitions drawn by the Assistant Adjutant-General and approved by the Commander. The outgoing A. Q. M.-G. shall not deliver up the funds and property in his hands until the incoming A. Q. M.-G. shall file his guarantee bond in the hands of the Department Commander, and the approval by him of the same.

SEC. 5. The Inspector shall perform such duties as are prescribed in Chapter V, Article V, and shall receive such compensation for his services as the Department Encampment shall from time to time determine.

SEC. 6. The Judge Advocate and the Chief Mustering Officer shall perform the duties properly belonging to their offices.

SEC. 7. The Medical Director shall require such returns from Post Surgeons as may be needed and called for by the Surgeon-General, and shall make returns to that officer.

SEC. 8. The Chaplain shall perform such duties in connection with his office as the Commander of the Department Encampment may require of him.

SEC. 9. The Council of Administration shall have charge of the working interests of the Department, shall audit the accounts of the various officers, shall keep a full and detailed record of its proceedings, and present the same for the consideration of the Department Encampment at each stated meeting thereof.

SEC. 10. The Various Staff Officers shall make to the Department Encampment, at each stated meeting, full and complete reports, in writing, of the operations of their departments, and when retiring from office shall deliver to their successors all moneys, books, and other property of the Department in their possession or under their control, except as provided in Article IX, Section 4 (guarantee bond of Assistant Quartermaster-General.)

ARTICLE X.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

At each annual meeting of the Encampment, the following order of business shall be observed:

1. Opening of the Encampment in due form (observing the forms used in opening Posts.)
2. Report of Committee on Credentials.
3. Calling roll of officers and members.
4. Appointment of a committee consisting of five members on reports of officers.

8. Reports from committees.
9. Unfinished business.
10. New business.

12. Reading minutes of the meeting and approving same.
13. Closing in due form.

ARTICLE XI.

ALTERNATIONS AND AMENDMENTS.

Any alternations and amendments to these By-Laws must be offered in writing and shall lie over until the next annual meeting of the Encampment, and be adopted by a two-thirds vote of all the members present

INFORMATION FOR OFFICERS OF POSTS.

Semi-annual reports from Adjutants, Quartermasters, and Surgeons, approved by the Commander, should be promptly forwarded to Assistant Adjutant-General of the Department on the first days of July and January. The necessity of strict compliance with this rule, will be obvious by reference to Chapter V, Article II, Section II, "Rules and Regulations," requiring the Department Commander to forward the Consolidated Return to National Headquarters "on or before the 20th days of July and January." If Post Commanders will bear in mind the time required for transmission by mail, the fact that Post Reports must oftentimes be returned for correction, and the labor involved in consolidation, they will see that twenty days is little enough time for Department officers to comply with the rules.

The per capita tax was fixed by a vote of the encampment at Platts-mouth, February 19, at 16 cents semi-annually for each comrade in good standing, providing reports of Posts are received by the Assistant Adjutant General on or before the 10th days of July and January; otherwise 20 cents semi-annually for each comrade will be required.

Reports to be made on the 30th day of June and the 31st day of December.

Quartermasters should make their checks and post-office orders payable to the Assistant Quartermaster General, from whom all regular Post supplies can be obtained by requisition.

In the absence of the Commander, let the Vice-Commander who is at the time Acting Commander approve reports.

Posts desiring the presence of Department officers at Camp-fires, Fairs, Reception, etc., are earnestly requested to give the names of railroad stations nearest the hall, times of arrival and departure of trains, and such other information as will secure the best results to all concerned. These matters should be embodied in the invitations.
